

Tammy is the Executive Director for the Lemhi County Economic Development Association and has worked closely with the businesses and organizations in the community since 2010. She is married with two grown children and she and her husband own the local Fly Shop in Salmon.